

Holly Holtzen, Ph.D.

Chief Operating Officer

Holly Holtzen is the Chief Operating Officer and is responsible for assisting the Executive Director in overseeing all of OHFA's programs and operations. She began her career with OHFA as the Director of Research and Strategic Planning leading all research and planning activities to advance affordable housing policy. Prior to joining OHFA, she was a post doctoral fellow at the University of Texas Medical Branch, Sealy Center on Aging where she examined social factors associated with health outcomes among underserved populations. Dr. Holtzen earned a Ph.D. in Health Services Research from Old Dominion University and a Master's degree in Public Administration from Troy State University.